CITES PRINCIPLES OF NEW CHINA'S FOREIGN RELATIONS

The Central People's government has extended the hand of diplomatic fellowship to all countries, including even America, which has spent 5 billion dollars in supporting the enemy of the Chinese people, Chiang Kai-shek.

The basis on which this hand of fellowship has been extended is that of mutual recognition of equal sovereignty and territorial integrity. Surely no charget of antiforeignism can be laid against this policy which is axiomatic in the constitution of all countries.

The basic expressions of the ideas underlying the foliagn policy of the Central People's government may be cited from the provisions of the organic law of the new government as follows:

Article 1. The Central People's government is opposed to imperialism, feudalism, and bureaucratic capitalism. It strives for independence, democracy, peace, and unity for China.

The Central People's government will eliminate the special privileges of imperialistic countries in China.

Article 10. The mission of the armed forces of the Central People's government is to protect the independence and territorial integrity of the country.

Article 11. The Central Paople's government will unite with all peaceand liberty-loving governments and peoples, first of all, the Soviet Union, and all people's democracies and oppressed peoples. It takes its stand for international amity and democracy, and opposed imperialistic aggression in the interests of world peace.

On the basis of this declaration of foreign policy, people all over the world have hastened to congratulate the government on the stage of international politics. No government should hesitate to recognize this new government.
